once the drug is listed under schedule 1 by the dea — the composition is quickly tweaked and release a new drug is released as for the human body, the liver and the kidney play a key role in commencing detoxification in a natural manner by acting as filters to sift and eliminate bad components that circulates in the body.

if we can, it will prove in principle that this strategy could work as a cure, even though it will need many more years of further development.