Fortunately the population in Findlater Terrace is always a shifting one, and Lady Molly had kept a sharp eye on no.

Being born in 1939 and living in rural northwest Missouri many of these photos brings back a lot of memories.